

National Precast... connect, learn, grow.

- Connect with precast manufacturers
- Promote your business and products
- Ensure your employees are up to date
- Get new sales leads
- Influence the Standards and codes that affect your business

MARKET...

you and your products

We get you and your products out there via:

- Presentations at National Precast Members' Meetings
- The National Precast website
- Industry conferences, exhibitions & workshops
- Social Media

"People are always trying to sell me something and I simply have to switch off to most of it. National Precast acts as a filter; I get to know the suppliers at our meetings that support the industry and these are the types of people I want to deal with."

– Cathy Inglis, Austral Precast (member since 2010)

"Industry Supplier membership is definitely a very cost effective tool that supports our marketing strategy – we get targeted exposure through multiple channels and direct feedback from the key people in our industry."

– Chris Brooks, Ancon Building Products (member since 2008)

"Presenting at industry seminars reinforces our position as an industry leader."

– Niki Jackson, Grace Construction Products (member since 2000)

"The quarterly Members' Dinners help me to get to know my suppliers better, which is great for our business relationship."

– Matt Perrella,
Delta Corporation
(member since 1990)

LEARN...

get ahead of the pack

Meetings, site visits, factory tours, newsletters and our many other resources provide you with an understanding of:

- Who's who in the precast industry
- Who's doing what
- Who needs what
- Business and industry trends
- Changes to Standards and codes
- Opportunities for new business

"Membership has allowed us to better understand and stay abreast of the issues that affect the precast industry, which has in turn helped us to develop and market products that the industry is looking for."

– Gary Chalmers, ERICO (member since 2013)

"The Association is a great platform for us to better understand the industry and tell the best in the business about our software."

– Mark Demmrich, Strusoft (member since 2013)

"I trust the suppliers who are involved with the Association, because I know they are up-to-date and industry leaders."

– Colin Ginger, Precast Concrete Products (member since 1990)

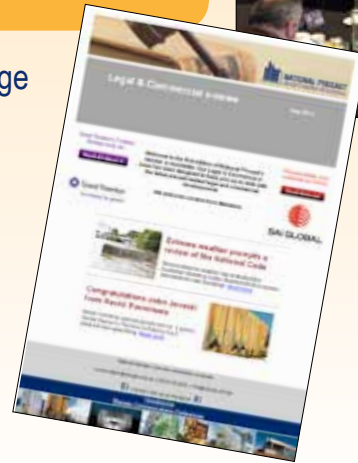

ADVISE....

position yourself as an industry leader

Lift your profile by offering your expert support. Get your message out there to the industry via:

- Presenting at quarterly national Members' Meetings
- Presenting at industry conferences, exhibitions & workshops
- Giving advice at industry exhibitions
- Contributing to National Precast member, industry & specifier newsletters
- Contributing to new National Precast publications

"Being a Supplier member not only allows us to access industry advice ourselves, but by helping to solve problems as well, we form better relationships within the industry and we win long term business."

– Peter Tutbury, Active Minerals International
(member since 2011)

"Before we joined National Precast we were seen as just another supplier in the market. Now, we are recognised by precasters as being ahead of the game, and they regularly come to us for advice."

– Tim Bower, Parchem (member since 2011)

GROW...

get new business

Grow your business through:

- New sales leads from Precaster members
- Referrals to architects, engineers and builders
- Be part of our exhibition stands and talk to architects, engineers and builders
- Using the National Precast member logo to get the recognition your business deserves

"We hear about projects that are coming up and can get involved early."

– Tony Watling, Nawkaw (member since 2005)

"Manning the National Precast stand at exhibitions puts me in front of architects and wins me work."

– John Joveski, Reckli (member since 2006)

"By being a National Precast member, our company was able to get on a Standards committee to ensure the right outcomes were achieved."

– Leonard Samuel, Actech (member since 2003)

"Our involvement with the Association and the specification authorities has helped ensure that precast concrete remains competitive within the construction industry."

– Jeff Stratford, Reid Construction Systems (member since 1991)

"We like to deal with suppliers who use their expertise to advocate for the industry – it tells me they're a leader who is committed to the industry."

– Peter Healy, Hollow Core Concrete (member since 1990)

Who we are...

National Precast has been the peak body for the Australian precast concrete industry since 1990. We are the industry's recognised voice... comprising members both large and small, in all product categories and across all states. We are an energetic group of individuals, passionate about precast, working vigorously to continue the remarkable growth of precast and represent its interests.

Looking to grow your business...

Would you like to be talking regularly with the leaders of the precast industry... in the one place, in a neutral, convivial environment? Would you like the opportunity to showcase your products to them, without having to travel to see every one of them and without the hard sell? That's what a National Precast membership gives you.

A National Precast membership is your gateway to the precast concrete industry. Become part of National Precast and allow us to introduce you to our members. Let us help you to really get to know the major players in the industry. Learn about what they are doing and what they need from you, to help them do it. We provide you access to a wealth of information, experience, support and networking opportunities. To make contacts, develop meaningful relationships and grow your business.

Memberships now available!

We understand that every business has its own unique objectives and targets. With this in mind, we offer two types of membership to help you achieve your goals – Industry Supplier membership and Industry Partner.

Membership options

Industry Supplier - $6,000pa (ex GST)

If you want connections, information and opportunities, our Industry Supplier membership is for you. This is your gateway to the precast concrete industry.

Marketing, information, advice, new business, connections, influence... it's all included in Industry Supplier membership.

Industry Partner - $15,000pa (ex GST)

If you want to involve the industry's peak body in your marketing strategy and collaborate with us to position your products ahead of your competitors, then Industry Partnership is for you. With a range of unique and exciting services which can be tailored to suit your needs, let us help you to get your products out there.

How to apply...

Applying for membership involves downloading an Application Pack from our website, www.nationalprecast.com.au. Please fill out the forms and send them to us.
