

Marketing & Communications

November 2017

Once-a-year opportunity to position yourself as an industry leader! Only a few left! Time is running out!

The December issue of Construction Engineering Australia Magazine will be a special precast issue.

Special advertising rates

National Precast has negotiated a total of 4 full page (or equivalent) ad spots, which are available to members at a very special discounted price! The front cover will be precast-related and there will be a longer-than-usual precast feature inside.

Special prices for members only:

Full page ads $1100 + GST (normally $3100)

Half page ads $700 + GST (normally $2100)

ACT QUICKLY IF YOU DON'T WANT TO MISS OUT!!

Contact Amy at info@nationalprecast.com.au.

*If you need help putting something together, our graphic designer can work with you for $200 (+GST).

Editorial space

This is also a great time to have your fabulous projects showcased in the magazine! Please contact Adrienne (comms@nationalprecast.com.au) ASAP with details so we have time to write and create case studies for you.

Typical information we need includes:

- What precast elements did you supply?
- Why was precast concrete chosen for the project?
- Did you encounter any challenges? How were they managed?
- Were there any special mixes or finishes?

- Is there anything especially interesting or unique about the project?
