November 2017

Are you an expert in applying performance-based design?

The opportunity to join this volunteer Subject Matter Expert Network closes this Sunday!

Dont miss out on an opportunity to apply for the ABCB's newly established network of volunteer Subject Matter Experts (SMEs) specialising in performance-based design.

This pilot is part of the ABCB's journey to engender a performance mindset and raise awareness of performance-based solutions across Australia's architecture and building design sectors.

If you're passionate about performance-based design and think you may have what it takes to become a SME, follow the link to the guidelines which contains information on how to apply. Find out more.

Applications for the SME Network close Sunday, 12 November 2017.
