

Factory Manager Asurco

- Join a Leading South Australian Company in Roofing, Cladding, Toilet Partitions and GRC
- Utilise Your Expertise in Factory Management to Drive Success

About The Role

As the Factory Manager, you will play a pivotal role in overseeing the production and timely delivery of products to customers and project sites. Your hands-on approach will ensure that the factory operates smoothly and efficiently. Some of your responsibilities will include:

- Lead and motivate employees to meet and exceed production targets
- Ensure compliance with OH&S policies and enhance production methods for efficiency
- Ensure items conform to quality standards before dispatch
- Manage & control Purchasing and Storage of material for production & Projects
- Maintain plant and equipment to reduce downtime, Manage work schedules for tradespersons and assistants

About You

The successful candidate will have a proven track record in factory management, with a passion for leading teams and driving operational excellence. You will possess:

- At least 5 years in a supervisory role in manufacturing, preferably in Cladding or GRC
- Proven experience in staff management, motivation, and training
- Strong understanding of production processes, quality control, and safety regulations in a manufacturing environment.
- Strong communication skills across all business levels
- Passionate about quality control and detail-oriented
- Skilled in planning and prioritising operations
- The right to work in Australia

Apply today and don't miss out on starting this exciting opportunity as soon as possible!

Apply via email to: info@asurco.com.au